I understand that neither the directors nor the building is responsible for accident, injury or theft. I understand that all decisions by the judges are final. Judges will be from out of town and well qualified. Poor sportsmanship will not be tolerated and will result in disqualification without refund. I understand that if I win Queen, Princess or Overall, I will be required to represent my title at the "Little Miss Mississippi" Pageant in 2012. I understand that failure to do so may result in my title being handed down to the next in line, so that they may represent my area. Do not worry you may sell program ads and tickets to cover your entry fees to state.
